

The Spotlight - March 2021

Time rolls on and here we are in March already and a year since we, and many others, last travelled because lockdowns around the world started in earnest this time last year.

Man has captured some aspects of the essence of time, such as Chaucer with his 'time and tide wait for no man' but no-one has ever captured the reality of time better than Solomon in words given to Him by the originator of time. "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace." (Ecclesiastes 3:1-8).

The longer we live, the more we understand the truth these words capture and, essentially, the ups and downs that each phrase represents. This is an ideal time for us to say a big THANK YOU to all who sent kind messages after hearing about our difficult month of January. Praise God that this month was a time to heal for the two of us, and even more exciting a time for another healing from cancer for a man who asked the TLCW Prayer Team to pray for him. He sent his thanks to all - how lovely it is to get feedback for not everyone takes the time give it, but no matter, the small, dedicated team faithfully pray for people around the world that they've never met and they make us feel proud to know and work with them. If you ever sense a call to intercede for others and want to join a team which definitely receives God's blessings in prayer, then let us know, for we always have room for more in this key ministry.

This past month was also special for us in that we did manage to release our novel, so if you're a murder mystery buff, do visit our author website <https://jamiejaine.com/> for more information.

Now, it's time to leave you with a word on three more of God's promises.

1. God Promises Peace

2. God Promises His Protective Presence

3. God Promises You'll Become a Better Version of You

The link to final promise shared in the month of February, which features God's Promise of Forgiveness, will be provided next month as at the time of writing, the link is not yet finalized.

*God bless you to stay safe and well,
Jim & Elaine*

The world and its desires pass away, but whoever does the will of God lives forever. (1 John 2:17)
